Jim Marras, Technology Advisory Chairperson

- a) Welcome
OSBA Spring Cyber Conference 3/15 and a download of PDFs are in the share folder.
- b) Minutes
The February minutes are posted online.

Organizational Update

- c) May assembly meeting – May 6th 10am at NEOnet – will go over fees and appropriations, bylaws, and security initiatives. Please inform your district Superintendents and Treasurers.
- d) Finance committee – Dustin, Jim, Kelly – Will meet on March 22nd. Working on FY20 budget, security initiatives, and after hours support.
- e) Generation Yes Ohio – 4 districts will be working on this project: Brunswick – 3rd grade, Copley – High School, Green – High School, and New London – High School.
- f) Overdrive – Electronic resources are becoming less used and more of an expense. Looking for feedback on using Overdrive. Talk to Media Specialists for thoughts on switching.
- g) Customer Satisfaction Survey – a 15 minute survey that will be sent out by the end of the week.

Legislative Report

Take a look at Federal Procurement Guidelines Dec 2017.

Chromebook group purchase

The goal is to have requests in by April 12th offering G6. NEOnet will cover all warranty claims and will have MOU and cut sheet sent out early next week.

h) Securly Document Review

A 10 page Google doc has been saved in the share drive titled Securly 3/14. An overview was given from the January phone conference with Securly staff.

NEOTech Review

i) What worked – 90% of attendees used the Whova App.

j) What didn't work – A debriefing with the NEOTech Committee will be scheduled, date TBD.

k) Feedback –

500 attendees Day 1

200 attendees Day 2

Parking at the Center was an issue.

Wifi was a common complaint – too slow.

Technology Integration Discussion

Contact Dan or JC to schedule a training.

Round Table Discussion

Next meeting scheduled for 9am April 11th at NEOnet.
